Our level of service and professionalism is second to none and you will discover that we offer great value for money. We have included an example of the average cost of a funeral, however we appreciate that every funeral is different and people's circumstances differ as well. As true independents we are able to cater to this and if funds are an issue we can work to tighter budgets with a scaled down package without compromising on our dignified and professional service. If you think costs may be an issue, please don't worry, simply get in touch and we can discuss the options with you.
